NAB MISSIONARY OF THE WEEK
JESSE R. KING, 45th Sustainment Brigade Chaplain
Schofield Barracks (located on the island of Oahu)
U.S. Army Garrison, Hawaii (USAG-HI)

Chaplain Jesse King was promoted to the rank of Major in the United States Army on June 4th, 2010. The ceremony was held at the Main Post Chapel on Schofield Barracks, Hawaii. Chaplain King now serves as the 45th Sustainment Brigade Chaplain. He is also the Worship Arts Pastor for the Protestant Service at the Main Post Chapel.

Please continue to pray for Jesse and his wife Brenda and their spiritual leadership. Pray that soldiers and their family members will continue to respond to the message of Jesus Christ. Pray also for Jesse's daughters Olivia (age 8) and Lillian (age 3). Olivia attends Bible Camp this summer. She has already made a commitment to Jesus Christ and wants to be baptized. Lillian is three and needs to get serious with potty-training.

MISSION TEAM ANNOUNCEMENT

We want to encourage your family to remember our Missionaries. We have posted a sign up sheet for the months June - December on the Missions Board for people to commit to write or email our missionary families as they celebrate their birthdays and anniversaries or just a word of encouragement and assurance of prayer for their family.

Missionary addresses are located on the Missions Board and also on the WCB website.
